

Friday December 11, 2009 from 7-8pm

“Community Holiday Concert and Cookie Swap”

Come enjoy an evening of fun and camaraderie. Classical, Celtic and traditional music with an assortment of live entertainers including Jim Aguiar, Annette Holba, Christina Trivelli and the group Rhubarb Pie.

Bring along a dozen and a half of your favorite Christmas Cookie to share and exchange. (Bring your recipe as well.) Campton Historical Society will provide Hot Cocoa to warm the body and the musicians will provide the music to warm the heart and spirit. There will also be a reading of The Night Before Christmas. Come sing around our old fashioned Christmas Tree and enjoy an evening of fun for the young and young at heart.

The presentation will be at the Old Town Hall in Campton, which is handicap accessible, and open to the public. For information about the Society, check our web site at www.camptonhistorical.org

