

Where Are The Schools Today?

Probably Abandoned
Eastern Corner
Chickenboro

Burned

Beech Hill (after it became a home.)

Beebe River (after it was taken apart and moved behind the Lower Village Store.)

Enjoy the following pictures.
All other schools were put to good use.

Dolores Inkell's Home
Once the first school in the Village.

Chickenboro School
One of the Oldest

This picture was painted by May Robie McNeil when she was a young girl, living on the Robie Farm in Chickenboro , in the late 1800's.

Following her marriage she had two daughters , Catherine McNeil and Hattie McNeil Cote . A son , Venner has passed away .

Hattie's daughter , Patricia Cote Johnson , has this picture in her possession as well as another of the school which her grandmother painted . Thank you Pat for letting me have a photograph !

Chickenboro Elementary School

4991-

This picture was painted by Mrs. Robert McNeil when she was a young girl, living on the Robert farm in Lebanon, in the late 1800's.
Following her marriage she had two daughters, Elizabeth McNeil and Hattie McNeil. Mrs. McNeil's son, James, has passed away.
Hattie's daughter, Thelma, has the picture in her possession. It is well as another of the school which her grandmother painted. Thank you for letting me have a photograph!

Campton Elementary School

-1994-

Ellsworth Hill School
Home of William Avery

Hildreth School
Summer home of
Mr. + Mrs. Josiah Fisher

Perch Pond or New Discovery School
First school in Beebe River
Home of Mr. + Mrs. Vernon Plant
Mad River Rd. - Thornton

West Campton School
Homecraft Shop

Bog School - Summer home

*Blair School
Now a home*

*Livermore School
Now a home.*

Pulsifer Hill School - First home of Bert + Laura Pulsifer

Lower Village School
Home of Dennis + Nancy McKenzie

Center School
Now a home - Stubbins

Village Schools

School moved to back of
"Campton Cupboard" for storage.

Campton Town Office Building